

MEMORIAL SELECTION PRICE LIST 1st JANUARY 2011

Eight Reasons for buying a memorial from a member of the

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MEMORIAL MASONS

A memorial should be a lasting tribute perpetuating a life. It therefore needs to be well made and securely erected. Often it is difficult for a person buying a memorial to assess the quality and workmanship that should be expected. So, to avoid unnecessary future expense, regret or even distress, it is advisable to choose a memorial mason who is required to work to certain specified standards.

1. All members must carry out memorial work to the standards laid down in an approved Code of Working Practice.
2. All members are skilled memorial masons with a full understanding of their craft and therefore capable of providing a proper aftercare service.
3. All members must be well-established businesses with a proven track record.
4. All members must adhere to a strict Code of Ethics.
5. All members are required to have Public Liability insurance cover.
6. All members are encouraged to take part in training schemes, seminars and craft competitions organised by the Association to promote high standards of craftsmanship.
7. All members are able to offer memorial insurance through schemes approved by the Association – these cover All Risks, including vandalism.
8. Finally, in the event of any problem arising, the National Association of Memorial Masons Offers an independent arbitration service.

Most Churchyards will not permit polished Granite or White marble. They normally permit honed Karin Grey and Light Grey Granite, Buff Limestone, Portland Stone, York stone, Welsh Blue Black Slate, Westmoreland Green Slate, Hornton Stone, and Purbeck stone. This list is not exhaustive and is only a guide to the more commonly used materials.

The shape of most memorials shown on pages 3 – 8 (i.e designs A1 – C14) can be made in stone types suitable for churchyards. Book memorials, heart shaped memorials and Figure carvings are not normally permitted.

* The prices of certain materials can fluctuate. The prices shown for Purbeck are a guide. We reserve the right to change the price of Purbeck. Hornton stone is currently unavailable.

Completion of Welsh Blue Slate memorials can take between 6 to 9 months

All memorials can be supplied in larger sizes where permitted (prices on application)

Most designs can be supplied in other materials. We can advise you accordingly.
