

Our Family History

When a death occurs in your family, you need the help and advice of a local, family-owned Funeral Director. Lodge Brothers is the family you can turn to.

Eight generations of our family have been helping local families in their time of need and for over 240 years we have been providing funerals, whether modern, traditional, green or alternative, with care and compassion. During these years our reputation for delivering a professional and personal service of the highest quality has been built on trust and recommendation.

Unlike many Funeral Directors who were formerly owned by local families but who have now joined major national groups, Lodge Brothers is proud to say that it remains an independent and wholly owned family business.
