LODGE SUITE

WOKING

Time to say goodbye,
your way.

A welcoming space designed for families to gather, remember and celebrate a life.

Lodge Brothers.
Trusted by families since 1780.

When it's time to say goodbye, you can trust Lodge Brothers.

Every life is unique, and every family says goodbye in their own way. That's why we created The Lodge Suite, Woking.

Designed for families who want a more personal and flexible farewell, including those choosing a direct cremation, The Lodge Suite offers something that can be difficult to find during one of life's most significant moments: the time, freedom and support to create a tribute that truly reflects the life of the person being remembered.

Whether you are planning a quiet moment of reflection, a traditional service, or a celebration of life filled with music, photographs and personal tributes, The Lodge Suite provides a warm and welcoming setting where family and friends can come together to share memories, celebrate a life well lived, and spend time with one another without feeling rushed.

Supported by the experienced team at Lodge Brothers, every farewell is thoughtfully planned with compassion, care and meticulous attention to detail, ensuring each service is as individual as the life it honours.

Designed around what matters most.

Time together

More time to gather, reflect and remember the people who matter most.

Space to come together

Comfortable seating for up to 50 people in a calm and welcoming setting.

Create something personal

Music, photographs, films, readings and tributes come together to create a farewell that truly reflects their life.

Bring everyone together

Live streaming allows family and friends to be part of the occasion, wherever they are.

Celebrate afterwards

Take your time and continue sharing stories and moments together, with tea and coffee or light refreshments.

Create the right atmosphere

A beautifully designed setting that can be enhanced with thoughtful touches to create an environment that feels warm, meaningful and unique.

Support when you need it

Compassionate guidance from the experienced Lodge Brothers team, every step of the way.

Thoughtfully chosen flowers

From simple arrangements to something truly individual, floral tributes can reflect a favourite colour, flower or special connection.

A lasting reflection of their life

Bespoke Orders of Service bring together words and imagery to create a meaningful memento of the day.

A choice that feels right

A wide range of coffins, styles, finishes and materials allows families to choose something appropriate to them.

Something to remember them by

Thoughtful keepsakes and memorials offer a lasting way to honour someone special and keep them close.
